The status of the claims is as follows:

Claims 1-9, 12, 13, 22, and 24 have been cancelled; and Claims 10, 11, 14-21, 23, and 25-29 are herein addressed below.

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claims 10, 11, 14-21, 23, 25, and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 1, line 9, the phraseology "free edge" is not readily understood by the Examiner. Specifically, what is meant by "free edge". The Examiner cannot find support for this limitation in the specification.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 10, 11, 23, and 25-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being clearly anticipated by Szerdahelyi et al. Szerdahelyi et al. disclose a motor vehicle door comprising: an interior sheet metal (1b and 3), an exterior sheeting (1a), a hollow interior space formed between (best seen in figure 1f) between the exterior sheeting (1a) and the interior sheet metal (1b), an opening (3a or 3b) in the interior sheet metal (1b and 3), a carrier module (5 and/or 6) that closes the opening (3a and/or 3b) and carriers at least one function part (a handle and lock assembly) of said motor vehicle door, the carrier module (5 and/or 6) including a base plate (50 and/or 60) which closes the opening (3a and/or 3b) of the interior sheet metal (1b and 3) from a side of the hollow interior space of the vehicle door, and an access opening (10) sized large enough to allow entry of the carrier module (5 and/or 6) into the interior space of the door. Szerdahelyi et al. further disclose the exterior sheeting (1a) further including a carrier frame (the edge portions of the door as well as the upper guide/carrier portion for the window pane). Szerdahelyi et al. further disclose the interior space of the door is provided in the interior sheet metal (1b and 3) is closed by a closing plate (1'b, column 5, lines 22-23, i.e., the trim panel having openings for module (5 and/or 6).

Art Unit: 3634

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 14-21, and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Szerdahelyi et al. in view of Carlo et al. All of the elements of the instant invention are discussed in detail above except providing the carrier module with two guide rails for a cable assembly and a brace. Carlo et al. disclose a carrier module having two guide rails (7) in a cable assembly and a brace. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide the module of Szerdahelyi et al. with two guide rails in a cable assembly and a brace as taught by Carlo et al. since multiple link drives and cable drives are art equivalent and both perform equally as well to drive a window closure. It would have been further obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide the module of Szerdahelyi et al. with a brace as taught by Carlo et al. since a brace provides rigidity to the module.

The applicant's arguments have been considered but are not deemed persuasive. The applicant argues that Szerdahelyi et al. disclose an access opening centrally located and not along a "free edge". The phraseology "free edge" is broadly recited since the applicant fails to specifically state exactly the dimensions of the opening as well as exact dimensions of the location with respect to the "free edge". The applicant mentions the opening and edge in the specification but the Examiner cannot find support for the phraseology "free edge". With respect to the 35 U.S.C. 103 rejection, the applicant states the it would not be obvious to provide these features in Szerdahelyi et al. yet the statement from the board of appeals states that the combination is reasonable (Decision on appeal, page 4, last paragraph).

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 3634

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
